

State Aid

Objectives

This training aims at explaining to both public institutions and private entities the basic principles and practical implications of State aid law. Public operators will find in this legislation a way to sustain the economy while private undertakings might seek the State's support to develop their business and continue to develop. As regards private entities, a further interest lies in the fact that aids granted in violation of the TFEU provisions will have to be recovered by the State.

Content

- General features of the regime
- Rules on procedure
- Forms for notification and reporting
- Block exemption regulations
 - De minimis rules
 - General block exemption regulation (environment, etc.)
- Sector-specific rules
 - Transport (air, rail, maritime, road, etc.)
 - Audiovisual
 - Broadcasting + Broadband
 - Research and development
 - Electricity (stranded costs)
 - Postal services
 - Synthetic fibres / Motor vehicles
 - Transport (air, maritime, rail, road)
 - Financial sector: application to state aid rules to measures taken in the context of global financial crisis
- Form of Aid available in Luxembourg
 - State guarantees
 - Public Land Sales
 - Provision of real property
 - Export credit insurance
 - Fiscal aid / Rulings
 - Aids for SMEs
 - Luxembourg Future Fund
- EU financial support available through EU Funds
 - Main structural Funds: ERDF, ESF, Cohesion Fund
 - European Fund for strategic Investment
- Specific forms of aid coming from both State budget and EU funds
 - The Luxembourg Future Fund
- New developments concerning Tax Rulings in the light of State Aids Rules

Speakers

Our speakers come from all over our specialised and complementary teams, covering all legal, regulatory, taxation and advisory aspects of doing business in Luxembourg. We invite you to check our training agenda on our website where the speakers are listed on each training session.

Target group

Public entities, directors, sales managers and other professionals in charge of legal, regulatory and compliance functions.

Duration

4 hours.

Languages

French, English, German.