your professional training solutions

Arendt Institute is Arendt's specialised legal training business, focusing on the increasing needs of clients on key topics regarding legislative and regulatory developments.

Our experts are Partners, Counsels or Senior Associates from Arendt & Medernach, Arendt Regulatory & Consulting and Arendt Services.

Each one of them is an expert in his or her domain and always up to date with current developments.

Arendt Institute proposes high-level and practical courses in all business areas to a large target audience including top executives, managers and officers.

Arendt Institute delivers:

- customised in-house training courses
- open, off-the-shelf training sessions at our premises at Arendt House

Play by the rules

Professional development is mandatory for many corporates and institutions as regulatory and legal changes may affect their global strategies.

Arendt Institute is uniquely positioned to assist in keeping up with these challenges as our trainers are at the forefront of legal, regulatory and tax developments. Case studies from our trainers' own experience contribute to a valuable training experience and enable participants to put into practice the theoretical issues.

Essential values

- Subject matters of immediate relevance
- In-depth training courses delivered by multidisciplinary teams covering legal, regulatory, tax and advisory aspects
- Interactive and pragmatic training courses
- Guaranteed continuous follow-up after the training on topics addressed

Expert trainers

Our experts have developed a wide practice in their areas of specialisation.

Their expertise is deepened through the experience many of them gain on committees and working groups within institutions such as the Association of the Luxembourg Fund Industry (ALFI), the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF), the Insurance Supervisory Authority (Commissariat aux Assurances), the Luxembourg Bankers' Association (ABBL) and the International Fiscal Association (IFA).

They are speakers at national and foreign conferences on business topics as well as lecturers at universities.

Thus, they have a perfect understanding of clients' businesses both in the public and private sectors as well as at domestic and international levels and are able to provide tailor-made proactive advice and innovative solutions.

Flexible formats

- In Luxembourg: face-to-face briefing/coaching/workshop sessions
- Outside Luxembourg: flexible training solutions for international customers (on-site, remote sessions via videoconference, etc.)
- E-learning courses

Audience

Our seminars cater for a large target audience including top executives, managers and officers in charge of business, operational and legal matters.

The diversity of our participants' profiles is a key factor contributing to the richness of the exchanges which characterise our training sessions.
