GDPR compliance - a long term challenge rather than a one shot effort

Objectives

The EU General Data Protection Regulation has been applicable since 25 May 2018. It applies directly in all EU member states. Being GDPR compliant has been a major challenge for many businesses.

The objectives of this training session are to:

- give a refresh on the fundamental principles of data protection,
- identify the main operational impacts for the person in charge of the treatment and processing and for the data protection officer (DPO),
- provide participants with a view on latest developments and their impacts.

Content

Reminder of the basics under the GDPR and Luxembourg law

Practical guidance

- Contracting with processors
- Access right requests
- Data breaches – How to identify them and how to react?

Recent developments

- Schrems II and the transfers of data outside the EEA to countries which do not offer an adequate level of protection
- New standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission
- Processing of health data in relation to Covid 19
- Sanctions imposed by the CNPD
