WHERE?

Sofitel St. James

Please join us for the second edition of our breakfast seminar which will take place in person in the Sofitel St. James in London on 11 July 2023.

Another year has gone by and “retailisation” of private markets is remaining a hot topic for asset managers. We will look at the fund solutions that are most commonly used to structure private markets products for retail or private clients in the EU and beyond. We will come back on recent regulatory developments, with a focus on the upcoming application of ELTIF 2.0. Our panellist will discuss the latest trends on this market, including distributors and investors demand.

We are very pleased that Michael Bogdan (Goldman Sachs Asset Management) and Tarun Nagpal (S64 Capital Innovation) will join the discussion and tell us more about the opportunities and challenges for the asset management industry in the retail AIF market.

Please contact the London Office (habib.bouchaker@arendt.com) or the Events Team (events2@arendt.com) with any questions.

We look forward to welcoming you at this seminar.

Kind regards,
Camille Bourke
