

ARENDDT UCITS 2023 WEBINAR SERIES

Despite external challenges and recent outflows, the UCITS fund industry has overall continued its growth trajectory over the past few years. Whilst COVID and global macroeconomic conditions caused some disruption, these funds have demonstrated continued ability to re-invent themselves and adapt to the pressure caused by global challenges. They have also proven to be a particularly potent vehicle for promoting new trends in ESG investing.

During the first part of our UCITS 2023 Webinar Series we shared the latest regulatory trends and developments on ESG, PRIIPs KID, benchmarks, distribution and costs and charges.

Join us for the second part of our UCITS 2023 Webinar Series.
