We are pleased to invite you to the first edition of our Arendt Wealth Management Morning which will take place on Thursday 28 March 2019 at Arendt House.

This Private Wealth Seminar tailored to address the cornerstones of Wealth Management will focus on corporate governance, civil law and tax topics as well as on the challenges and opportunities that technological developments such as artificial intelligence may represent for it.

To approach latter aspects, we are delighted to welcome Matthew Gardiner as our keynote speaker.

Matthew Gardiner, founder of Catch London, is a go-to consultant paving the way for tier I financial institutions, VCs, multinational corporations, entrepreneurs and visionary start-ups to adopt FinTechs, AI, cryptocurrencies & RegTech. He recently spoke at, among others, Google, Facebook and the Payments & Clearing Association of China.
