Liquidation of investment funds: More complex than it seems

Invitation

THURSDAY
2 Dec. 2021

12:00 pm - 01:00 pm CET

Webinar via Webex

In the context of increasingly complex regulatory constraints and liability risks affecting the funds industry, the liquidation process of funds and related reporting requirements have also become more challenging for all intervening parties, including asset managers, board members, accountants and liquidators.

Our experts from Arendt & Medernach and Arendt Services are pleased to invite you to our interactive webinar “Liquidation of investment funds: More complex than it seems” on Thursday, 2 December 2021.

They will combine legal and business support perspectives to address latest regulatory trends, main challenges and pitfalls as well as practical and strategic guidance to the liquidation of investment funds.

During this webinar moderated by Corporate & Restructuring Partner Sébastien Binard, Investment Management Partner Francis Kass will address the legal aspects, while Senior Manager Damien Schuind will tackle the accounting angle and Conducting Officer Marie Druinaud will share her experience from a liquidator point of view.

Please feel free to pass on this information to any colleagues who may be interested in attending.

Should you have any questions, please contact events@arendt.com.

We look forward to your participation.
