

Adrian Aldinger

Introduction

Adrian Aldinger is a Partner in the Private Equity & Real Estate practice of Arendt & Medernach where he advises fund sponsors on all legal and regulatory aspects related to the structuring, formation, marketing and ongoing operation of alternative investment funds with a particular focus on private equity, debt, infrastructure and venture capital funds. Further areas of expertise include primary and secondary fund investments, fund governance and compliance, separately managed accounts, joint ventures as well as carried interest and co-investment arrangements.

Education

- He studied law in Erlangen and Berlin and holds the German first (2007) and second (2009) state exam in law.
- He is admitted to the bars of Berlin (Germany) and Luxembourg.

Memberships

- Board member of LPEA and co-chair of private funds working group.

Partner

adrian.aldinger@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 947

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French,
German

Expertise | Investment Management,
Private Equity & Real Estate