

Guy Harles

Introduction

Guy Harles is a Founding Partner and former Chairman of Arendt & Medernach S.A.

He advises multinational, domestic and HNWIs companies on the structuring of international transactions, private equity investments, corporate reorganisations, mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and private wealth management.

Education

- Master's degree in law from the Robert Schuman University in Strasbourg
- Advanced degree (DESS) in Banking & Finance
- Lecturer on business law at the Centre Universitaire de Luxembourg
- Lecturer on the Faculty of Law (University of Luxembourg)
- Lecturer at the Université Louis Pasteur (Strasbourg) from 1981 to 2007
- Lecturer at the Université Paul Cézanne (Aix en Provence) from 2010 to 2012

Memberships

- Former President of EuroArbitrage
- Member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR
- Chairman of the Luxembourg arbitration association
- Luxembourg bar since 1980
- Chair (Bâtonnier) of the Luxembourg Bar Council from 2011 to 2012
- Foreign lawyer to the Hong Kong Bar in 2009
- Honorary member of the Paris Bar
- Former president of the Luxembourg Young Bar Association and AIJA (International Young Lawyers' Association)
- Past Co-Chair on the Corporate and M&A law committee of the IBA

Partner

guy.harles@arendt.com

(352) 40 78 78 203

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French,
German, Italian, Luxembourgish

Expertise | Corporate Law, Mergers
& Acquisitions, Private Clients