

Stéphanie Maschiella

Introduction

Stéphanie Maschiella is a Partner at Arendt.

She heads the Arendt Tax Compliance Services.

Stéphanie advises on both national and international tax issues, with practical implementation as part of her tax compliance expertise. She works on private equity, real estate and finance transactions, with a particular focus on the Italian market. She seamlessly integrates her extensive legal expertise in tax with practical considerations, delivering clients an efficient, unique and comprehensive service.

Education

- Stéphanie holds a Master's in Finance from Audencia Business School in Nantes (France) and a Master's (LL.M.) in European and International Tax Law from the University of Luxembourg.

Previous experience

- Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach in 2018, Stéphanie served as a Tax Director with one of the Big Four firms for over twelve years. In this capacity, she provided strategic advice to a diverse range of pan-European funds throughout their entire lifecycle, in addition to advising Italian-related clients and investment structures across various industries.
- She is the co-author of the Luxembourg chapter of The Real Estate Investment Structure Taxation Review published by Law Business Research Ltd, London.

Memberships

- Stéphanie is a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2021.
