

Principal

bruno.gasparotto@arendt.com

(352) 40 78 78 391

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French

Expertise | Tax

Bruno Gasparotto

Introduction

Bruno Gasparotto is a Principal in the Tax Law practice of Arendt & Medernach where he specialises in VAT law, advising on both national and international issues. He focuses on the VAT aspects of financial transactions involving amongst others banks, SOPARFIS, investment funds and real estate companies.

He also has extensive knowledge in the fields of industry, trading, retail and information technologies.

Education

- Bruno Gasparotto holds a degree in consular commercial sciences from the Institut Catholique des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (Brussels) as well as a degree in fiscal law from the Ecole Supérieure des Sciences fiscales (Brussels)

Previous experience

- Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach, he worked as a VAT manager within the Big Four firms and as head of the indirect tax department at the international level with Arcelor.

Memberships

- He is a member of the VAT working groups of the Luxembourg Investment Funds Association (ALFI)
- The Luxembourg's Bankers' (ABBL)
- The Luxembourg Private Equity & Venture Capital Association (LPEA)
- The Luxembourg Capital Markets Association (LuxCMA)