

Olivier Harles

Introduction

Olivier Harles joined Arendt & Medernach S.A. in 2013. He is a Counsel in the Private Clients and the Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions practises.

Olivier specialises in estate planning, international succession and private wealth structuring.

He advises private clients, family offices and entrepreneurs, as well as private equity firms, hedge funds, real estate funds and private companies, both national and international, on a wide range of domestic and international transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures and reorganisations with a focus on corporate law, corporate finance and transactional business law.

Olivier also advises private equity firms on a wide range of domestic and international transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures and reorganisations with a focus on corporate law, corporate finance and transactional business law.

Education

- Master's degree in law (licence en droit) from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgium)
- Master of Laws degree in Finance and Banking law (LL.M.) from the Queen Mary University of London (United Kingdom)

Memberships

- Luxembourg Bar since 2014

Counsel

olivier.harles@arendt.com

(352) 40 78 78 231

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French, German, Italian, Luxembourgish

Expertise | Corporate law, mergers & acquisitions
Private Clients
Private Equity & Real Estate