

Senior Associate

elettra.vercella-baglione@arendt.com

(352) 40 78 78 3105

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, Italian

Expertise | Investment Management

Elettra Vercella Baglione

Introduction

Elettra Vercella Baglione is a Senior Associate in the Investment Management practice of Arendt & Medernach. She advises fund sponsors and institutional investors on all legal and regulatory aspects related to the structuring, formation, marketing and ongoing operation of alternative investment funds, with a particular focus on real estate, private equity, debt and venture capital funds.

Education

- Elettra graduated from Università Bocconi in Milan (Italy) with a Bachelor's and Master's in Corporate Law, Financial Markets and Competition Law. Following that, she continued her studies with an LL.M. in Business and Finance Law from The George Washington University Law School, Washington D.C. (USA).
- Elettra has been a member of the Milan Bar (Italy) since 2017 and the Luxembourg Bar (List IV) since 2022.

Previous experience

Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach in 2022, Elettra gained extensive experience at a leading Italian law firm in Milan, where she dealt with corporate law in the private and public sector, with a particular focus on domestic and international M&A, private equity and restructuring transactions.

Memberships

- Rotaract since 2008