- Master's 1 in International Relations (Université Cergy-Pontoise & Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, 2008)
- Bachelor's in law (Université Cergy-Pontoise, 2007)

Previous experience

- Before joining ARC, he served as a Manager at a Big Four firm, where he advised clients, primarily large corporations, on regulatory compliance and anti-corruption measures.
- Before this, he operated as an independent Senior Investigator, conducting corporate intelligence, fraud investigations, asset searches and litigation support for a diverse clientele, including corporates, law firms, and NGOs.
- Earlier, he spent 8 years as a Manager of Investigations & Corporate Intelligence at a leading risk advisory and strategic intelligence firm, overseeing high-stakes investigations, asset searches, competitive intelligence, and compliance projects (ABC, AML, ESG) for clients ranging from CAC40 companies to public authorities, NGOs and individuals.
- Throughout his career, he has developed significant expertise in complex investigative environments, advising both private and public sector clients. His deep experience across industries and geographies enables him to effectively manage risks and address intricate investigative challenges.
