

Counsel

magedeline.mounir@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 8405

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French

Expertise | Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Restructuring & Insolvency

Magedeline Mounir

Introduction

Magedeline Mounir is a Counsel in the Litigation & Dispute Resolution practice of Arendt & Medernach.

She specialises in civil and commercial law, advising domestic and international clients with a focus on commercial, corporate and financial disputes. She assists clients at all stages of a dispute, including pre-litigation actions, court proceedings, enforcement and settlement.

Magedeline also advises and assists clients on matters and proceedings related to insolvency and restructuring.

Education

- Magedeline studied at Université Paris X and Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne (France) and has a Master's in Business Law from Université de Cergy-Pontoise (France).

Previous experience

Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach in 2024, Magedeline gained experience working in the Dispute Resolution and Litigation practice of a large independent Luxembourg law firm for 7 years and in the Restructuring and Insolvency practice at an international law firm in Paris for 3 years.

Memberships

- She has been a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2017 and the Paris Bar since 2014 (non-practising).
- She has been an IBA member since 2021.