

Vincent Mahler

Introduction

Vincent Mahler is a Partner in the Tax Law practice at Arendt & Medernach and Head of the Paris Tax Desk. He advises on both national and international tax issues, focusing on the tax aspects of unregulated and regulated real estate structures as well as private equity and finance transactions.

Education

- Master's degree in business law.
- Doctorate degree in International Tax Law from the University of Strasbourg (France).

Previous Experience

- Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach in January 2007, he was a student-researcher in International Tax Law at the University of Strasbourg (France) over a period of three and a half years.

Partner

vincent.mahler@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 692

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French

Expertise | Tax