

Senior Associate

dimitra.michalopoulou@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 8521

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French, Greek

Expertise | Investment Management

Dimitra Michalopoulou

Introduction

Dimitra Michalopoulou is a Senior Associate in the Investment Management practice of Arendt & Medernach. She advises both domestic and international clients on the legal and regulatory aspects of structuring, organisation, marketing and day-to-day management of regulated investment funds.

Dimitra specialises in anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing (AML/CFT) matters, providing guidance and advising both regulated and unregulated investment funds, as well as investment fund managers, with respect to their AML/CFT obligations.

Education

- Dimitra has an LL.M. in European Economic and Financial Criminal Law from the University of Luxembourg, (Luxembourg).
- She also has an LL.B. in Law from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (Greece), including Erasmus program at the Université Paris-Saclay (France).

Memberships

- Dimitra has been a member of the Athens Bar Association since 2019 and of the Luxembourg Bar Association since 2022.
- She joined ALRiM: Luxembourg Association for Risk Management in 2025.

Previous Experience

Dimitra worked as a lawyer for 3 years at a highly regarded law firm in Athens specialised in financial criminal law. Following this, she spent 2 years in the AML department of a Big Four firm in Luxembourg, where she refined her expertise in the field of AML/CFT. She joined Arendt in 2022.