

Gaëlle Schneider

Introduction

Gaëlle Schneider is a Partner in the Investment Management practice of Arendt & Medernach. She has considerable experience in investment fund regulatory matters at Arendt, advising clients on the structuring, creation and organisation of management companies, their investment funds and related asset servicers. Gaëlle also has significant operational experience in the management company business as she launched and headed AManco, the investment fund manager within Arendt, as CEO from 2020 to 2025.

Education

- Master's (Magistère) in European Business Law from the Université Nancy II (France).
- Master's in European Business Law from the University of Sheffield (UK).

Memberships

- ALFI
- IBA
- Gaëlle has been a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2008

Partner

gaelle.schneider@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 294

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | English, French,
reading knowledge of German

Expertise | Investment
Management