

Counsel

stessie.soccio@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 758

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | Dutch, English, French

Expertise | Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions

Stessie Soccio

Introduction

Stessie Soccio is a counsel in the Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions practise with a particular focus on advising domestic and foreign clients such as large local and international companies, private equity and real estate funds on all aspects of the structuring of international transactions, corporate finance, and mergers and acquisitions, cross-border restructuring and reorganisation matters, joint ventures, directors-shareholders conflicts, and directors liability disputes.

Education

- Lecturer for Company Law – Fundamentals at the Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce.
- L.L.M. in International Business Law from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgique).
- Master's degree in Law (major private law) from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgique).
- Bachelor's degree in Law from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgique).
- Brussels Bar since 2011.
- Assistant to the Honorary Professor, Martha Weser, at Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgium) from 2005-2010 in private international business law.
- Erasmus program at Erasmus Universiteit (in Dutch), Rotterdam (Pays-Bas).

Previous Experience

- Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach, she worked for several years in Brussels for major law firms in Commercial Litigation, Corporate Law (M&A and corporate restructuring), Bankruptcy Law, judicial reorganization proceedings, European Competition Law and International Private Law.