Amélie Woltrager

Introduction

Amélie Woltrager is a Senior Associate in the Investment Management practice of Arendt & Medernach. She assists clients on the structuring, setting up and whole life cycle of regulated and unregulated alternative investment funds in Luxembourg and their underlying vehicles until liquidation. Her experience covers the various asset classes, notably real estate, infrastructure, private equity and multi-strategy. She also advises fund managers and investors on ongoing legal and regulatory developments impacting their local and cross-border operations, including matters arising under AIFMD and the various product laws in Luxembourg. Furthermore, Amélie has a particular focus on and experience in sustainability-related matters and advises clients on the design and implementation of sustainable investment strategies through their investment vehicles. She is also a member of working groups on sustainability in Luxembourg and European associations.
