

Thierry Lesage

Introduction

Thierry Lesage is a Partner in the Tax practice of Arendt & Medernach. He advises on both national and international tax issues. He is mainly active on private equity, real estate and M&A transactions. He also assists private clients and family offices.

Education

- Thierry Lesage holds a Master's degree in law from the Université de Liège (Belgium) as well as a Master's degree in tax law from the Université Libre de Bruxelles (Belgium).
- Thierry Lesage is the co-author of the Luxembourg chapter of the International Guide to the Taxation of Holding Companies published by the IBFD (Amsterdam).
- Thierry Lesage is constantly top-ranked by major league tables including Chambers Europe (Band 1) and Legal 500 (Leading Individuals).

Memberships

- Thierry Lesage is a member of the Luxembourg Bar, the American Bar Association, the International Bar Association and the International Fiscal Association where he was appointed as national co-reporter for the 2003, 2005 and 2014 Congresses.
- Chair of the Investment funds and fund structures - Direct tax aspects working group of the Association of the Luxembourg Fund Industry (ALFI).
- Former Vice-Chair of the fiscal commission of the Luxembourg Bankers' Association (ABBL).

Previous Experience

- Prior to joining Arendt & Medernach in 1999, Thierry Lesage worked as a tax manager with one of the Big Four firms and as head of the corporate tax department with a bank in Luxembourg.

Partner

thierry.lesage@arendt.com

T +352 40 78 78 257

Office | Luxembourg

Languages | Dutch, English, French, Italian, reading knowledge of German

Expertise | Tax, Tax Advisory, Tax Compliance, Transfer Pricing, VAT - Indirect Taxation, Tax Litigation, Financial Reporting and, Accounting Standards, DAC 6, Private Clients, Private Equity & Real Estate